Summary

I was born in Brasília, grew up in São Paulo and studied in São Paulo, SP (FAAP). I love to read and travel. I have traveled the world to more than 15 countries. I am passionate about social good, technology and self-knowledge.

Currently, I am working at Comdinheiro with the objective of expanding the financial market, bringing knowledge of it to people. My job is to find the best way to combine knowledge of the financial market and our platform and transmit it to clients.

I love living life and I appreciate every moment and opportunity! I go out with people at work and we end up discovering that in addition to being a co-worker, there are interests, thoughts and fascinations similar to, what starts by sowing friendships. I'm a tech and economics geek. I'm also making my way into programming (Python). I regularly attend technology meetings.

I don't like pushy people. If you're nice, I'll go out of my way to help you. I like to treat people with respect. I like to help people and I love to learn about them and with them, Story of my life :)

Countries I traveled to:

Argentina, Bahamas, Brazil, France, Italy, Uruguay, Panama, United States, Canada, Portugal, Spain, Netherlands, Greece, United Arab Emirates, Australia and New Zealand :)
